BYU Athletics provides the services of athletic trainers at every Sports Camp session. These trainers are available to assess the level of medical attention needed for your child. If your child needs medical attention (i.e., ER or health clinic), Sports Camps will attempt to contact you as soon as possible. We highly recommend that you send with your child all prescription and over-the-counter medications that they take on a regular basis or on an as needed basis (i.e., an inhaler for exercise-induced asthma for use when needed, migraine medication, etc.). If your child will be bringing prescription medication, please send a note to Sports Camps explaining the reason for the medication.

I have been advised of and/or recognize the risk inherent with my child's participation in this program, including permanent disability or death, and I assume full responsibility for all injuries that may arise, including those related to his/her physical or emotional limitations. I unconditionally release and hold harmless BYU and its employees and agents from any and all liability or claims that may result from his/her participation in this program, whether caused by the negligence of BYU or otherwise. This child has no health, emotional, or injury-related conditions (recent or chronic) which will be aggravated by or which will exclude his/her active participation in this program. My child has seen a physician in the last year. In case of injury or illness, I give permission for the above child to be transported to and/or receive medical treatment, and I guarantee the payment of all expenses incurred for such transportation and treatment. I further understand that BYU does not provide insurance for participants, and that I agree to assume full responsibility for obtaining personal health insurance coverage and pay for any and all medical health care expenses related to or arising from participation in this program including any such expenses incurred by BYU on my child's behalf.

By registering for this program, I agree that my youth's image may be used, with discretion, by Brigham Young University, or its assignees, for promotional purposes in print, web and video productions. I understand and agree that I have no expectation of compensation for this use.
